Attendees: Charlene Pietrok Pierce, Fred and Vangie Ripp, Brian Schachtsick, and Karlene and Eddie Santibenez

George Gerspacher donated a copy of an article, "The Passing of the Plow" (July 18, 2017). Fred and Vangie talked about their trip to South and North Dakota to see friends and relatives. There was a discussion about meeting times and we agreed to open the archives and museum only once a month, on Tuesday, from 9 am. to 12, noon. And any other time can be arranged by appointment by calling or texting Charlene Pietrok Pierce at 503-508-0312.

June 20, 2017

Attendees: Fred and Vangie Ripp, Charlene Pietrok Pirece, and Brian Schachtsick

We had a discussion about a photo of the Cascade Riders Band. We were able to identify Larry Hendricks, Ronnie Bentz, Mary Jo Hendricks, Rose Hendricks and Al Etzel (aka. "Salty"). However we need a little help with last names for Bobby _____, "Hoppy" _____, Bob _____, and Dusty _____. Does anyone know the last names of these people? We also discussed the ship "graveyard" on the Columbia River. Fred and Vangie Ripp also donated a mitre box and Ward's master quality Plow Plane from the 1930's. Three tiles were also donated from the old Ed Hassler place (where the new addition of homes are now being built.)
